

*"The clustered spires of Frederick stand,
green walled by the hills of Maryland."*

John Greenleaf Whittier

RED HAT SOCIETY

GLOBAL WILDLIFE SAFARI

DESTINATION

Frederick

The City. The County. The Region.

» WHAT'S NEW?

- Silent Movies at the Weinberg Center for the Arts accompanied by the mighty Wurlitzer pipe organ
- Frederick County Brewery tours and tastings (Brewers Alley, Barley & Hops and Flying Dog Ale)
- Frederick Visitor Center (scheduled to open in 2010)
- Tea with Mamie Eisenhower at the historic Cozy Inn
- Talks and tour with Paul, owner of Great Stuff by Paul, featured on HGTV and Southern Living Magazine
- Global Wildlife Safari Ride at Catoctin Wildlife Preserve, a ride through 25 acres of wooded acres with opportunities to photograph and feed mammals from six continents
- Frederick Wine Trail

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Tiffany Ahalt,
Tourism Marketing Manager
Tourism Council of Frederick County
19 East Church Street, Frederick, MD 21701
tahalt@fredco-md.net

Mileage is from downtown Frederick.

800-999-3613 • www.frederickgroupplanner.org

SUGGESTED TOUR ITINERARIES

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CIVIL WAR

During the Civil War, Frederick was fiercely contested ground with numerous skirmishes and exhaustive troop movements accompanying the nearby battles of Antietam, Gettysburg, South Mountain and Monocacy.

- Tour Monocacy National Battlefield's Visitor Center
- Learn about Frederick's healing role in the War at the National Museum of Civil War Medicine
- Maryland Civil War Trails program "Gettysburg and Antietam Campaigns"
- Experience three counties through the Maryland Civil War Heritage Area

HISTORIC SPACES & FUN PLACES

- Experience a Jesse James train robbery on the Walkersville Southern Railroad
- Listen and learn at one of twenty historic site and museums
- Visit three covered bridges
- Tour the National Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first-American-born saint
- Old meets new with a collection of public murals and sculptures scattered among architecture spanning four centuries

STUDENT TOURS – EDUCATION, FUN AND PERFORMANCE VENUES

- Student-friendly lodging, perfect home base for trips to Washington, D.C. or Gettysburg, PA
- Student-friendly restaurants featuring inexpensive all inclusive menus at Cozy Restaurant, Mountain Gate and Barbara Fritchie Restaurant
- Performances venues available at year-round festivals, stadiums and theatres such as the Weinberg Center for the Arts

SHOPPING AND CULINARY ADVENTURES

- Specialty and antique shops in vibrant Main Street communities
- Shopping areas including Prime Outlets, fifty block historic district in downtown Frederick, and Everedy Square/Shab Row
- Tour and taste on the Frederick Wine Trail or one of Frederick's up and coming breweries
- Group friendly restaurants offering breakfast, lunch and dinner: Dutch's Daughter, Carriage House Inn, Cozy and Mountain Gate Restaurants
- Tour and taste at local farms to create the true farm to table experience

SCENIC BYWAYS & THE NATIONAL ROAD

Frederick County is criss-crossed by 6 scenic roadways including the Catoctin Mountain National Scenic Byway Journey Through Hallowed Ground®, the Historic National Road, and two Maryland Civil War Trails. Get off the busy interstate and experience outdoor recreation, shopping, arts, culture and historic sites.

GUIDED TOURS:

Options are available for touring Frederick via motorcoach or by foot. Companies offer group discounts and reservations can be made by contacting directly.

- Museum of Frederick County History
Contact: 301-663-1188
- Candlelight Ghost Tours of Frederick
Contact: Ron Angleberger, 301-668-8922
- Student Tour packages and transportation
Contact: 866-539-5287
- Full Day Guide Service
Contact: Tiffany Ahalt, Tourism Council of Frederick County, 301-600-4050 or 800-999-3613
- Float Trips, Biking Along the C & O Canal
Contact: River & Trail Outfitters, 800-326-7238

The monument at Francis Scott Key's grave.

